

KEEP ELEMENT 1 AS IS. Every licensed amateur radio operator should be able to pass at least 5 WPM regardless of class. CW could be the only means of communications possible under certain disaster conditions. Any licensed radio amateur operator should have the potential to be able to operate under emergencies of the worst conditions requiring CW operation.